

STATEMENT

I uphold and defend the Christian Ideal and its strictly analogous manifestations in other systems of thought, particularly Buddhism, as the divinely ordained foundation of a peaceful coexistence among all Human Beings and the only realistic means for their eventual survival. Consequently I respect anyone of good intentions, no matter if white, black, brown, yellow, chequered or spotted. I have not the faintest ambition to lecture, cheat, insult, harm, displace, subjugate, rape or murder anybody, and categorically expect the same treatment for myself, my family and my people. Meaning I am prepared to rise in arms if it is refused for any reason whatsoever.
